Northern Area

① Okada Memorial Hall (Tel. 0282-22-0001)
25min walk from Tochigi Station
15min walk from The First Parking Lot
The Okada is a family of pedigree that has more than 550 years of history. In the old days, every three years Samurai Hatakeyama lodged here on his way to Nikko. In the land covering an area of 13 thousand㎡, there are warehouses displaying the Okada family's distinguished treasures.
Open: 9:30~17:00
Closed: Tuesday to Friday

② Reiheishi Road
25min walk from Tochigi Station
15min walk from The First Parking Lot
In 1617 the casket of Tokugawa Ieyasu was transferred from Mt. Kuno to Mt. Nikko. Since 1646, the Reiheishi, envoys from the imperial court came from Kyoto to Nikko for religious ceremonies held in Nikko. The road which they used to pass through was called Reiheishi Road. There is a trail of Reiheishi Road on the main street and the Kaemoncho Street. There are black-walled old shops, and white-walled warehouses on both sides of the streets. The streets take you back to the old days.

Western Area

③ Tochigi City Museum of Literature (Tel. 0282-25-5400)
15min walk from Tochigi Station
5min walk from The First Parking Lot
In 1873, the capital was established in Tochigimachi. However in 1884, it was transferred to Utsunomiya, so the capital in Tochigimachi ended with very short history. Then the Tochigi prefectural buildings were surrounded by the moat. This one and only vestige in the remains of the former capital city was registered as prefectural cultural assets.

④ Tochigi City Museum of Art (Tel. 0282-25-5300)
A 20-minute walk from Tochigi Station and a 5-minute walk from the first parking lot.
In addition to introducing paintings by Kitagawa Utamaro, Toshiyuki Shimizu, Isson Tanaka, Jin Osakabe and Kenji Suzuki, and bamboo crafts by the second generation of Izuka Hosai and Izuka Rinsai, the exhibition will feature works by outstanding artists from Japan and abroad.
Opening hours: 9:30 a.m. ~ 5 p.m.
Museum day: Monday, exhibition change, etc.

⑤ Yokoyama Local Culture Hall (Tel. 0282-22-0159)
15min walk from Tochigi Station
5min walk from The First Parking Lot
The Yokoyama family were wealthy merchants of the Meiji era. The building consists of a hemp wholesale store (the right side as you face it) and the bank (the left side as you face it). Today, the wholesale store office and the historic bank have been carefully restored.
